Greetings,

This letter is about Missionary Tim Searles whom I have known for thirty-five years. My first impression of him was that this was a man serious about serving the Lord. I was right.

He was the first missionary from our college to make it to the mission field and he has been there for over thirty years. God has blessed his ministry and his family. His greatest asset in the ministry, besides the Lord, is his wife Maureen. Together they have raised seven children to love the Lord and serve him in various ways.

Tim has a burden for the people of NakornNayok. His ministry there has spanned decades and has been deepened by his steadfast service. Sending him to Thailand with additional support will allow him to reach more people for Christ. Oat Valley Baptist Church has supported Tim Searles for the entire twenty-two years of my being here. I know he can challenge any church to love missions.

On a personal note: I met Tim during the difficult time of being a freshman in college as a family man having to work more than full time. He was doing the same thing and his example to me was exactly what I needed. He is one of the people God has given to me as a friend and one I trust explicitly.
